TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The following remarks were not written as a rebuke or verbal assault on the character or Christian status of my brethren or a personal affront to friends and relatives who might have television in their homes. After a diligent, thorough study of the background, character and motives of this powerful media we feel that it is our Christian duty to try to expose it as a deadly enemy. The disastrous results of its insidious treachery can be seen, and felt in every segment of society.

We realize that these sincere words of warning might endanger friendships of long standing, but, as we see it, the preservation of the Christian family, true Holiness and our nation under God, far outweighs any personal loss that we might incur in the process, however painful it might be. Our only motive is to turn the spotlight of truth and reality on something that has proven to be a TOOL OF SATAN. For our lack of charisma and journalistic ability we humbly apologize. For months we have been waiting patiently for some qualified writer of our movement to address the issue in depth, but there are so many other safer, and more popular subjects to write about. Perhaps they have more pressing problems to solve, or they are unaware of the serious inroads it has made in Holiness circles. We trust that it is not because they are unwilling to endanger their status quo with brethren who might be addicted to it.

We have tried to supplement our personal observations of the vicious nature of T.V. with testimonies and documents from informed leaders from all parts of our society, along with the tearful confessions of unfortunate victims of its diabolical perfidy.

Should you disagree with our convictions or our method in presenting them, we trust that you will consider the motive behind them and be charitable in your judgment and condemnation.

Carefully and prayerfully weigh the evidence we have tried to present and let the Holy Spirit guide you. Don't be tempted to gamble with the well being or eternal destiny of your family, friends, or neighbors who might look to you for spiritual guidance. The stakes are too high and the odds too heavy against you. May God bless you. C. G.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO AMERICA

Back in the 1800's the U.S.A. was the most law abiding nation on earth. By worldwide acclaim it was the land of the free and the home of the brave, a showcase of the blessings of Christian democracy. The Word of God still held its rightful place in our halls of learning and courts of law. Education was what the name implied with the books portraying virtue, thrift, honesty, courage, honor and loyalty to God, country and mankind. Church doors remained open day and night for prayer and meditation. (Prayer was permissible anywhere then.) Violent crime was the exception then, rather than the rule. In most rural areas, dwellings were never locked and in sultry weather whole families bunked outside in unfenced yards with their sole concern being the dive bombing of the "skeeters" and the "undercover" activities of ticks and chiggers. With the exception of a few ghettos, the people could walk the streets unmolested, day or night. As a general rule, officials in all branches of government were men of the highest caliber of honesty and dedication. If not Christians themselves, they had great respect for God's people, openly praising them for their part in making our country great. Among churched and unchurched alike, a man's word and his firm handclasp sealed many a bargain. After a hard day's toil a person could reasonably expect to lie down and enjoy a peaceful night's rest.

What about America a few decades later? In 1965, according to the American Bar Association, the U.S.A. was the most criminal nation on earth with the moral and spiritual life of the country at its lowest ebb in history. SOMETHING TRAGIC HAD HAPPENED! I wonder what the tally sheet would show now, after 24 more years of filth, infidelity, violence and immorality? By far, the greater part of this tide of lawlessness and iniquity has flooded our nation in the last 50 years. What could have caused this calamity? We'll just let that simmer on the back burner for a while.

Were we invaded and conquered by a cruel tyrant? No we dodged that bullet. Was our country prostrated by a godless dictator? No no in spite of our bungling we intercepted his missiles on the way in. Did some misfit with a load of exotic weapons make a nation of zombies out of us? Not yet! but several sinister groups are Still working on it! What then is the answer? Until you can come up with a more likely candidate for public enemy #1, I nominate our dishonest, immoral, subversive MEDIA with all its satanic tentacles T.V. in particular. At last Satan has found a tool to deceive the very elect. The media is brainwashing the gullible public with literally hundreds of different isms and dogmas, awaiting the signal from Satan to consolidate to annihilate Christianity. A decadent clergy with its blatant heresies and blasphemies has now changed sides and is aiding and abetting the enemy. Our entertainment media, T.V., porno magazines and movies have seduced our youth, camouflaging base wickedness with innocent sounding names. Sodomy is "free thinking," fornication and adultery are "permissive life styles." When the false prophets indulge in their clandestine romances they call it "new morality." Satan, the ruler of the nether world, is using the same old weapons that were so successful in Eden, but he's put it in a lighted box instead of a fruit tree. The pitch is the same please the eye satisfy your fleshly lusts wise up and be a god. 95% of mesmerized America is cooperating wholeheartedly with Satan and his cohorts with little thought about its evil influence. Well meaning fathers and mothers invite it into their living room despite its abominable reputation. Godly ministers whose faithful lives have influenced man for good, would thoughtlessly negate a lifetime of service by influencing others to place alluring, debasing scenes before their families. "But I can control mine," they quickly answer. Perhaps they can push the right buttons and keep the atmosphere wholesome, but what about their unsaved neighbor? Is he familiar with the tricks of Satan? Would he monitor his children's programs? If he purchases one, will you take hours and hours of your limited time to teach him when and where to turn the knob? Will his unsanctified heart be searching for the good (?) programs? He'll never find them accidentally. How would you feel if you influenced him to get a T.V., and later on you had to go over to console him when his son had followed the blueprint of crime detailed in the program and had to pay the penalty? It would be the most difficult task you ever had. I don't believe I would do it unless I wanted to get on my knees and apologize to him. Another thing, be sure and take down all the names of the ones you influenced, so you can have your excuses ready if anyone points his bony finger in your face at the judgment.

Are you real sure your own family will know which buttons to push when they are alone with the tempter? Consider the rock music, the nudity, the violence and perversion that is just awaiting the turn of a switch to flood your house with filth. Some of the so called religious programs are dishing out brew as deadly as Jonestown kool aid. Consider ones who have already gone astray. Some were raised around a family altar. My children could go bad. So could yours, but I certainly am not going to place the deadly poison in front of them to be a constant temptation. "I will set no evil thing before mine eyes" Ps. 101:3. Control is not always the answer. Suppose you had a pit bull for a watch dog. You warned and put up signs, but in spite of that the neighbor's child was bitten. How would he react when you told him that you had warned the child? He might accept your apology once, but the second time he'd tell you to get rid of the brute or he WOULD. Controls have a habit of going haywire.

We had a policeman friend who would always lock his gun and uniform in a closet. He warned his 14-year-old son to stay away from the room. They were visiting one afternoon when the boy and a couple of companions returned to the house for something. Despite the repeated warnings he got the gun, and thinking it empty, was showing off. Yes, it happened! When danger and youth are together anything can happen. Although it was not really the father's fault, that big IF still haunts him after ten years.

Satan is not satisfied with demanding all our leisure hours but covets all our waking hours, and its evil eye seems to be omnipresent. In the bedroom, basement, kitchen, office, workshop, factory and even in the hospital room it will be winking at us from some corner. It has even been known to invade the pastor's study! Whither shall I go from thy presence? Most people are so blinded by this "angel of light" that they completely ignore its evil influence! The distorted news that it spits out reveals the devastation that it causes, but never, never will it accept responsibility for it!

BUT I ENJOY THE RELIGIOUS SERVICES SO MUCH!

Perhaps you (did), but isn't your enthusiasm a wee bit dampened by the revelations of the last few years?

Their breezy scripts and flamboyant actors are an anesthetic to unwary souls. They wrap their bits of false doctrine in enough truth to make it palatable, while the fakirs are picking one's pocket so they can live like the Rockefellers! I imagine that some of their midnight escapades would be accepted by Hustler magazine if the false prophets would release the film. These deceivers tell you that it's a sin to be sick, foolish to be poor; that you are royalty and no physical or temporal blessing on this terrestrial ball will be denied the King's son! What a shame that the apostles never knew about it. Christ had to perform a miracle to pay their poll tax. Of course they didn't have T.V. to hypnotize the people. Why didn't someone tell poor Lazarus about it? He could have dressed in scarlet robes and fine linen and ridden around with Dives in the phaeton. The Bible tells us he was a child of God even if he was sorely afflicted and poor as Job's turkey. God never promised unlimited riches to everyone, no matter what the shysters tell you.

While one of the most famous T.V. charismatic pretended to be fasting and agonizing in prayer out in the desert, he was lounging around in his swank retreat, according to his former secretary. Wonder if that's when the towering image commanded him to blackmail his devotees for 8 million bucks. He's trying it again this year. He wants 11 million now!

A few years ago another chiseler sent out one of his golden promise letters to a patron "While in prayer last night God revealed to me that if you would send me a generous contribution He would surprise you with a great blessing." Guess who was surprised? the preacher the woman had been dead for months! A relative got hold of the letter and exposed him. Gullible devotees have been bilked out of billions while the inconsistent, immoral lives of these T.V. idols have destroyed the faith of multitudes. Be a good steward of God's money. Support the true servant of God: one who is at your beck and call at all hours, day and night; one who feeds your soul (not your ego) who visits your sick bed, counsels your family, marries your children and buries your dead sometimes for a mere pittance. Why support someone whose sole interest in you is your signature on a check?

Even in the homes where the parents try to monitor the programs, unforeseen things happen. In such a home a few weeks back a group of children were huddled around the tube. When the adult left the room for a moment click-click-click the scene changed. They seemed to know just where to turn the knob! One mother whose child was not "televised" noticed a change in the tempo of the voices and stepped to the door just as one person was shot and another was stabbed. Her child was not around to see what happened next. Later he began to sob. It doesn't take a psychiatrist to know what mayhem and violence will do to a tender conscience!

We live in a world with sin and violence all around us. Surely there should be some place that we could go to escape its baleful influence. Let's try to keep our home a haven of rest, as free from Satan's leaven as possible.

In some of our pastoral visits we accidentally appeared in their "prime time," and had to compete with Satan's big mouth the entire visit. With the mesmerized youngsters in the very jaws of the brute, soaking up the lethal radiation, our host would nod and talk to us out of the corner of her face, but her eyes, mind and heart were worshipping the one-eyed god! I'm sure you pastors know what we are talking about.

The transformation from the sublime to the ridiculous has been so gradual that it causes little concern; but when we look back 50 years and then scrutinize our deplorable condition today we see a dismal picture. As a nation, we have adopted every form of perversion spawned in the pits of hell and invited some new ones! Sin is so prevalent that we pay little attention to it. When I was a boy I would dash to the fence to watch a two "lunged" Oldsmobile go chugging by at a frightening 15 miles per hour. Then came the biplane and I would gawk as long as I could see a speck in the sky. Finally the satellite, and when the children were small we would take a blanket and go to the park and lie on our backs for hours watching the luminescent balls creep across the sky. There are several up there now but we haven't watched them for thirty years. They are commonplace now. So it is with sin and unrighteousness; it abounds and we scarcely notice it.

Years ago we were shocked to see a woman smoking a cigarette in public. We are shocked no longer. We see it continually. We've become callused to the deadly "bill of goods" that the movies and T.V. and "It" crowd has sold to foolish women. They still think it's chic to be in the "It" culture until the doctor comes in and says, "I can do nothing more for you sister, you've HAD IT! Lung cancer has now passed breast cancer in female deaths; 89% caused by smoking, according to researchers.

ASKING THE IMPOSSIBLE

Are some parents asking the impossible of their children? Most parents sacrifice to send their children to college, and they expect them to gain and RETAIN all the knowledge pertaining to a particular profession they have chosen. Success and livelihood depend on their remembering this material. In addition to this, they have to make room in their memory for the twelve years of public school, plus parental and religious training. Quite a load, but most normal intellects meet the challenge successfully.

But that's not all; the majority of these students also attend another school. The subject matter is presented in a more exciting, impressive manner. Sly, clever dramatization; realistic, shocking sound effects hammer the material into the memory, day and night, seven days a week. Classroom time approaches, or even surpasses that of secular education. They are taught by experts the baser, sordid, lustful side of life that is a deadly enemy to righteousness, health and the pursuit of happiness.

What a dilemma this presents to our youth. They are expected to remember family training, 14 to 18 years of secular education, and in some miraculous manner completely erase all the evil so indelibly impressed on their minds by the corrupt media. It's not as easy as removing the software. The human mind is harder to deprogram. Brutal K.G.B. "hospitality" will attest to that fact, and they are experts in changing people's minds. It is possible that some will never be completely free from T.V. brainwashing. Should they alone be blamed? Some were placed before the tube when they had to be propped up with pillows. Some of our high school students are so televised that they know the complete history of every movie star, rock screamer, and sports idol; but would be unable to name a single national patriot, past or present. In a recent poll a group of PRIMARY students were asked to name the products that sponsored T.V. shows. Some remembered 50, including 15 brands of beer, and believe it or not, correctly spelled all the brand names. That should open a few parents' eyes!

Ever since the early inhabitants of our earth tossed pebbles at a hole in the ground the granddaddy of modern golf to the multi-million-dollar sports extravaganzas of today, man has demanded entertainment for his leisure hours.

People with high ideals get happiness and joy in serving their Creator, the fellowship of family and friends, wholesome recreation and the simple blessings of life. The carnal heart cries out for the sordid, lustful, wanton things that Satan offers. Satan, the enemy of God and all that is good, has appropriated many of the things of this world for his own vile campaign. Things that could be a blessing have been changed to a curse. Without a doubt, the most deadly weapon in Satan's arsenal is the bewitching television.

In order to get a better appraisal of the TV. industry let us consider the source or wellspring of this powerful media.

Here's what a famous actor said about the legitimate state, an ancestor of show business, "NONE OF MY CHILDREN SHALL EVER, WITH MY CONSENT, ON ANY PRETENSE ENTER A THEATER OR HAVE ANY VISITING CONNECTION WITH ACTORS OR ACTRESSES."

For centuries the theater with its illicit love scenes and gory violence has corrupted the minds and morals of both participant and patron. Reformers and religious leaders of all ages have decried it as a mortal enemy to fidelity, chastity and spirituality. In former years much anxiety and contention surfaced in the more respectable family circles when a virtuous son or daughter even considered a career on the stage! Except for an isolated case or two, this reputation was well merited, as the lewd, indecent conduct of the group, on and off the stage, spiced the scandal sheets and back fence gossip, generation after generation. Its successor, the wild and woolly movies, were even more licentious and degrading. So called censorship and rating of movies was ineffective and practically worthless. THE RATING OF MOVIES IS JUST A TRITE ADMISSION THAT THERE IS "POISON IN THE POT"; a reluctant confession that the product is vile, indecent, and sinful. Allow me to insert an item from our local newspaper to prove my point. "In the last several months my husband and I have taken our two children, four and seven, to the movies rated PG. We were furious when we heard four letter words and cursing in both movies. It was a disgrace! Why in the world would such language be used in a film for children? I am sure we are not the only parents who are outraged by the filth our youngsters are exposed to in these movies. Tell me what we can do, short of boycotting the movies altogether!"

NOTE: -- No name or address was given so I will answer here.

One of the main points of the communist takeover manifesto is to destroy the morals of our youth the same is true of Satan and the porno barons.

Question number two What can we do about it? Answer Boycott the whole rotten mess before your darlings are programmed for a life of debauchery before they know what the word means!

Everyone agrees that the adolescent mind should be shielded from the perversion and violence, but what about the adult mind? Just because you know all about the birds and the bees and the other dodos of nature does not license you to revel in its abominable perversions. The well worn cliché, "you are what you eat," is just as applicable to your sight and hearing. You, as parents, will be held responsible for the souls in your household their health, happiness and DESTINY. Do you think you can do a commendable job of molding their character with your mind saturated with evil love scenes and shocking violence? Will you merit a "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," when you present your talents and report on your stewardship? It might be worth a bit of serious thought and a bushel of prayer before you allow the tempter to abide in your home.

OUR WONDERFUL COMPUTERS

What a wonderful invention the computer. God gave human beings one also, and it's a dandy when it is programmed properly. Computers touch every phase of our lives. Our complex defense system, our airports, our factories, even our markets are computerized. A few of us oldsters can remember the old country store. The polite clerk with the green eye-shade and the stubby pencil behind his ear would fill your order from the shelves, laboriously total it up and look up with a smile "Will that be all now? That'll be 94 cents." Yes, you could shop with a dollar and get change back, then! Now we snatch and grab as we roll past the counters, cruise up to the checkouts ping-ping-ping we pay and zoom out!

Computers prepare, energize, chart, control, and guide our space craft, but, like the human computer (mind), its knowledge is confined to what material it is fed. Our minds record a portion of what our senses feed them eighty percent of what we see, the balance from other senses. This software, or stored material, determines our thoughts and subsequently, our actions. Our mind, with our heart manipulating the keys, prepares, energizes, controls and pilots our bark through life to its eternal destiny. Should we not feed our "computer" the proper material? Should we not keep it sealed against all contamination?

Should it not be kept in a pure, controlled atmosphere if we expect to stay on the course determined by Master Control? Any fault or foreign matter in the shuttle's control could prove disastrous. Are we as concerned about our earthly "craft"? Remember this, when one is sitting before the insidious T.V., one is not only being entertained, but one is being purposely programmed, and brainwashed, as well, with much of the poison being vague and obscure.

FRIEND OR FOE?

When Christ, the prisoner, was led from the garden, the chastened, confused Simon Peter followed afar off and soon found himself in dire peril. What a miserable failure he was, in solving his problem. In a few short hours Satan stripped him of his courage, hope and Christian experience. Warming one's self by the enemy's fire is always extremely dangerous. Christians always lose when they follow afar off, get cold, entertainment. James tells us that keeping one's self unspotted from the world is a mandatory tenet of pure and undefiled religion. The white robes of the saints soil easily. Enter a coal mine in a white suit and you will come out spotted. Moral: stay away from the dirt if you wish to keep clean.

Is television friend or foe? Let's analyze it's character a bit. Is its goal extolling and promoting righteousness, peace and a wholesome life style? HARDLY!!! Its goal is to increase the popularity and rating of its programs to get more millions for its advertising, and it is ruthless enough to destroy anything in its way to reach that goal. Practically all of its leaders are unchurched and bosom friends to the gay lobbyists, humanists and liberal cliques. The programming is lewd, immoral, sinful and violent. Its friends, in and out of government, couldn't care less about the welfare of the people. No, all the evidence points to a covetous, greedy, lecherous group who care only for themselves; whose primary target seems to be Christianity.

In December 87 Herald and Banner, Dr. Kenneth Powell's article, "Friend or Foe?" delves a bit deeper into their character. Quoting Dr. Paul Kienel and Don Wildmon, he writes, "Evangelical Christians represent nearly thirty five percent of the American population, the largest minority in America. He declares that there is censorship against evangelical Christians by T.V. program heads and they seem to have nothing but contempt for us.

"The censorship against Christians by network T.V. is so complete that not one continuing series, in a modern day setting, has a single person who is identified as a Christian. In fact, when Christians are depicted in programs... they nearly always are stereotyped as being hypocrites, liars, cheats, frauds and unfaithful to marriage vows, etc. When asked how much influence in our society they should have, the elite group said "practically none," ranking religion next to last on their list. Evidently the only religion which Hollywood and the networks consider dangerous is Christianity."

Christ said, "By their fruits you shall know them." One night's journey through prime time should settle the question for everyone. Television is an enemy, and a deadly one at that! Christ said, "Love your enemies," but He didn't say we should indulge in their sins, promote their ungodly interests and cohabitates with them, so until I get a directive from an unimpeachable source I do not intend to encourage or invite their rotten product into my home, or finance the nefarious business in any way, shape or form.

SPIRITUAL WICKEDNESS IN HIGH PLACES

What are the churches doing to stop the deluge of filth and unrighteousness in the entertainment world? The church world in general, and the National Council of Churches in particular, has been a dismal failure in solving the problem of wholesome entertainment, so much so that it seems like they are on the opposing team. "If you can't whip em join em," seems to be their strategy. Allow me to document my allegations with a news release by an Arizona paper in the mid 60's. "WE ARE NO LONGER INTERESTED IN WHETHER A FILM IS SEXY, IMMORAL OR VIOLENT," smirked the spokesman in a N.C.C. censorship committee meeting, "BUT WHETHER IT IS TRUE TO LIFE!" For this mouthful of hogwash he was given a standing ovation by the delegates. Think of it! This was not the "Madame" of a red light district or the editor of Playboy speaking, but the duly elected representative of millions of American churchmen. Such infamy and blasphemy! Garbage hoof himself couldn't do a better job of besmirching the Christian image.

In my opinion, it is a sacrilege for the faithful laymen of these movements concerned to continue financing such ungodliness. Looks like Satan is herding another bunch of (angels) to the pit, doesn't it? Homosexuality, beer guzzling, dope shooting, adultery and all the rest of Satan's abominations are true to life, but far, far from a healthy diet for anyone, much less a Christian! We wouldn't dream of taking our loved ones to the bars, brothels or burlesque shows to entertain them, would we? We don't have to now; they deliver right to your living room! By the way, you never see these lurid posters of the high kicking chorus girls plastered on the walls and fences of the large cities any more. Alas, alas, T.V. stole all their stars and put them out of business. The girlies get much more EXPOSURE on T.V. Where the carcass is, there the eagles are gathered together on BOTH sides of the footlights.

But, what can laymen do about the spiritual wickedness in high places? Be in doubt no longer, brethren. The apostle Paul has solved your problem in words precise and clear. "BE YE NOT UNEQUALLY YOKED TOGETHER WITH UNBELIEVERS; FOR WHAT FELLOWSHIP HATH RIGHTEOUSNESS WITH UNRIGHTEOUSNESS? AND WHAT COMMUNION HATH LIGHT WITH DARKNESS?.. . WHEREFORE COME OUT FROM I in pain." Is it any wonder that we are seeing such a shocking increase of violence on every hand when the mass media is pouring out such a portrayal of violence? Rev. H. C. Van Wormer.

Note: That was thirty years ago. Programs would probably be classed as too tame to rate today! From the cartoons to the horrors, violence and immorality have quadrupled. Another network had thirty killings in one day and twenty debasing scenes in one hour. How many days of this do you think you could stand and still have a tender conscience? Years ago, wife was a piano teacher. One of her pupils would stumble through his lesson in a daze. She contacted the widowed mother, who quickly supplied the answer. "I have to work and when he gets home from school he sits by the T.V. continually, with scarcely a time out for meals."

"Thirty five years ago, among the hundreds of my fellow evangelical ministers, every single one of them was vehemently opposed to the corrupt movies! It grieves me to say that it's not so today." The late Lester Roloff.

An affluent matron was visiting Brother Roloff's girls' school one day and seeing no T.V. she exclaimed, "Oh, the poor things, no T.V. I'll see that one is installed, immediately." "OVER MY DEAD BODY," came the stern response of Brother Roloff.

CARTOONS

"The children get such a kick out of the cartoons." They are getting more than a kick out of them! Their conscience is being hardened by a steady diet of mayhem and violence. Our criminal youth of today, from correctional school to death row, majored in these same subjects. Perhaps it would pay you well to take a breather Saturday and join the children's T.V. party. It might reveal why your children are hyperactive, antisocial, belligerent and rebellious. It will be exciting also. If you are not a devotee of T.V. violence, you will probably be surprised, startled, stunned and shocked!

You might even get to see the bizarre shocker that C.B.S. is working on. Public sentiment rose up and stopped it for the present but the A.C.L.U. will want to throw their weight around. It features a child dribbling its own head down a basketball court. Even Bugs Bunny and Donald Duck have gone on the prowl and are quite adept at mayhem.

One child's program which promotes the sales of toy laser guns will keep you from dozing with its 114 acts of violence PER HOUR! Take a look at the toy gun shelves and you will know which programs are the most popular and what is filling the minds of our youth. If you love hideous monsters, unique weapons and thousands of pop-eyed invaders disintegrated by the deadly ray guns you will really enjoy Star Wars. Enough creatures are slaughtered in one program to make Joe Stalin green with envy. If some of the violent X-rated films get too tame for you, by all means get you a pillow and join the party in the playroom. While I was typing my remarks for the last time, a 14-year-old youth shot himself in the local high school. The reason for the act was not released but he was fond of guns!! The same week a 16-year-old Rambo devotee murdered his family.

According to some researchers the number of T.V. inspired murders runs into the thousands perhaps 20,000.

Little boy to T.V. repairman: "I know what's wrong with it, Mister. The bottom's full of dead Indians. I saw em shoot em!"

A Salvation Army officer warns parents to turn off their T.V.s between the hours of four and seven. These hours, devoted to children's programs, are filled with the most brutal crimes imaginable and it is these scenes that inspire teenagers to go out in groups and commit violent crimes. Readers Digest.

"Television has become a monster to millions of families. How ridiculous that we in this country mourn over moral problems and crimes committed by children, but let them continue to receive training for such crimes on T.V." -- Dr. Hugh Pyles, pastor and author. Please humor an old codger and let me repeat ONE MORE TIME How can anyone claim to be interested and concerned about his children's future and place such a booby trap at their disposal?

WITHOUT NATURAL AFFECTION

"SHOOT HIM! SHOOT HIM! LET HIM HAVE IT!" What do we have here? Another T.V. shocker? No, this is just the tragic result of them! A young law officer was assaulted and disarmed by a criminal who then taunted him and commanded him to get down on his knees and beg for his life. The officer complied and the thug lowered his gun and turned to walk away when called bystanders began to shout, "KILL HIM SHOOT HIM!" He returned and fired three shots into the young man's head, while the crowd yelled its approval.

What else could you expect from a generation who views dozens of cold blooded killings daily? Would you expect them to be shocked at one more? No, the corrupt media has addicted them with a craving for perversion and violence, and the sinister charmer that petrified their hearts finds a hearty welcome in 98% of homes. Doesn't make sense, does it?

A young girl had been murdered and her killer was asked how he felt after committing such a crime. He shrugged his shoulders and answered, "Why should I have any feelings about her? I didn't know her!"

Everyone agrees that the Florida mass killer deserved to die for his heinous crimes, but some of the crowd outside proved by their actions that they were capable of the same grisly murders when they made merry, whistled, sang, cheered and blew their horns as a human being, who had been satanized by pornography and media violence, went to meet his Maker. The porno crowd that fueled his sadistic nature, day by day, deserves the same fate. Their star salesman (T.V.) will have to do more acrobatics than sticking his foot in the door to gain entrance to OUR home. T.V. and the corrupt media have ruined and damned literally millions of lives. Should we nestle up to it and advertise it by our patronage?

Did the apostle Paul mean it when he said to shun the very appearance of evil? Hundreds of my brethren believe that he did and are willing to sacrifice, if necessary, to live by that premise. Can I insist on my so called civil rights and offend my brother's conscience? I can IF I no longer class him as a brother, OR I no longer have any love or concern for him. Can't you just hear Paul's quill scratching on the parchment? "BUT WHEN YE SIN SO AGAINST THE BRETHREN, AND WOUND THEIR WEAK CONSCIENCE, YE SIN AGAINST CHRIST. WHEREFORE, IF MEAT MAKE MY BROTHER TO OFFEND, I WILL EAT NO FLESH WHILE THE WORLD STANDETH." I Cor. 8:1213.

If you have a T.V., just casually ask your children if they have ever watched a forbidden program. Watch their expression. If their answer is yes, don't scold just ACT!

Some adults seldom watch T.V. and are not aware of its abominable programming. A young mother and her children were visiting her parents. A teenage brother was watching T.V. A lover's lane episode was being dramatized and she asked the brother to turn it off while her young children were there. The girl's mother spoke up and said, "Leave it on, it won't hurt them; just a little innocent petting. About that time the petting on the car cushion was getting a little "climactic" when the young mother whispered, "Look, Mom, quick!" Her young son's face was scarlet! Can your children still blush? Several years ago a vicious "fly by night" porno group secretly filmed a murder sequence in South America. I don't remember how they persuaded the victim to sacrifice his life, or how they escaped punishment. After a few grisly scenes were filmed the cameras stopped clicking and the mutilated body was dragged away and buried. When the news leaked out (purposely) that it was the real "McCoy" and not "play like," hundreds wanted to view the film at an exorbitant price, of course.

Please don't call such sadistic demons wild beasts. You might embarrass the lions and tigers! At the zoo, the latch on the lion's cage is out of reach of children. Wish it was on T.V. Satan puts enough stumbling blocks and pitfalls in our pathway without our assistance. "But I am sanctified! God will help me to filter out the good and discard the evil. I can control it." If strong temptation besets our pathway, God has promised to provide a detour for us, but when we deliberately dabble around with evil, God removes our guardian angels and we are on our own! Remember how quickly calamity fell on Job when God removed the "hedge"?

We are to shun evil, flee evil, abhor evil, not play games of chance with it! In the world of sports a handicap is sometimes placed on the stronger entries so that everyone will have an equal chance. It may consist of weights of various sorts. We, as infants, enter the race of life burdened with a serious handicap the carnal nature. Realizing this, Jesus died on the cross that this deadly enemy might be destroyed. Can we blatantly negate that supreme sacrifice by embracing another sinister weight, one that has caused untold thousands to drop out of the race? Will we welcome the master deceiver into our midst and cause others to miss the mark of the high calling in Christ Jesus? Will we go against the conscience of our brethren in order to boast of our superior resistance to temptation? Christian leaders and others of impeccable wisdom and judgment have taken a firm stand against it.

"Seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us [95% of our nation, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us." Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth.

THOU SHALT NOT KILL! It looks as if it was wrong to kill but perfectly all right to watch someone else do it. The pagans of Rome never had it this nice while they were enjoying the slaughter of the Christians. They had to brave the traffic and the weather. I know those hard coliseum seats were not as comfortable as the Lazy Boy!

Christians were the mutilated victims then, but now professed Christians are in the box seats watching the carnage without a qualm of conscience. T.V. furnishes a new horror every hour. Is it any wonder that immorality, violence and murder are on a rampage in the U.S.A. today? In our nation's capitol an average of one murder victim every twelve hours is discovered.

How is this for an appetizer? In one revolting café scene a live monkey was brought in, anchored to the table, his skull crushed with hammers and the diners spooned out the brains and ate them. NOTE: It took a fertile brain to conjure up that one!!! . . . and the worst is yet to come. There is little or no restraint on T.V. programming, but they are losing patrons to cable and video, where the sky is the limit. The networks are clamoring for permission to step up their own mayhem and violence. Old evil eye ought to REALLY get more gruesome in the near future if that is possible. I still can't see. Oh, never mind!!!

Back in the thirties our little congregation was made aware of the sinister power of corrupt movies and pornography in the life of a sixteen year old boy. His aunt was a member of our church and when they visited our church the boy would stay outside in the car and read one porno magazine after another. Mother and son attended a Holiness church in Kansas City and everyone thought him a well behaved son. In reality, he was the leader of a vicious youth gang in Kansas City, Kansas.

They had a hideout in the country where they met for their "parties" and planned their forays to finance their revelry. Early one morning two couples were cruising the streets looking for a victim when they spied a delivery-man. The leader approached the man with drawn gun and asked him to hand over his cash and make it quick! The man laughingly replied, "You've got to be kidding, sonny!" Without another word a bullet smashed into the surprised man's chest. The boy grabbed his wallet, hopped in the car and sped away. He returned sometime later to nonchalantly watch the medics cart away the lifeless body. After another brutal murder, the law began to close in, and one member of the gang was killed in a high speed chase, so the leader and three others departed for a "healthier clime." Seeing no customers in a rural drive-in, they ruthlessly shot the clerk and quickly rolled his body under the counter as another car drove up, laughing and joking with the customers as they prepared their order. They left when the road was clear, with the register receipts and a sack of food. They were captured a day or two later in Texas.

We detailed this account to show you the utter ruthlessness and demonic actions of graduates of "porno college." Ted Bundy isn't an isolated case. Satanized killers are scattered all over the nation with hundreds more being indoctrinated by our abominable media every day! Remember this!! You put one of their instructors in your living room at your own peril! Tuition for a course in crime is cheap now. You study now and pay later sometimes with your life! A three dollar movie ticket is unnecessary. You need not brave the cold weather to the convenience store for your porno magazine, either they're free for the asking AT HOME.

Now, I'd like to present my star witness for the prosecution. When one is on the very brink of eternity, one seldom deviates from the truth. His qualifications EXCELLENT! He made a thorough study of the subject from a vista that none of us, even the ones with degrees trailing along behind their names, has ever glimpsed the INSIDE! From Grandpa's greenhouse to Satan's seminary he looked, he tasted, he crammed, he gorged until the putrid mess permeated every fiber of soul, mind and body. He graduated Cum Laude and went out to practice his diabolical profession, bringing shame, sorrow, suffering and death to hundreds of families. Should we pit our own meager knowledge of the subject against one who has been inside the den of depravity and knows exactly what it's like? Hear ye hear ye listen to one whose mind became so saturated with scenes of sexual violence and perversion that he was compelled to commit the crimes personally to get carnal satisfaction from them; one whose entire adult life was one of shame and remorse until the lethal current surged through his body as hundreds cheered and horns blew outside the Florida prison. It is the end of this act but not the final curtain. In the next act he will be joined at the judgment bar by the fiends who produced and portrayed the filth that destroyed him. Surely HIS testimony is valid!

His first taste of the devil's brew was at his grandparent's home. His grandfather, addicted to pornography, hid his lurid material in the family greenhouse. Eight-year-old Teddie soon found them and when possible, continued to feast on the mess. Continued glimpses of the violent pornography became addiction until, as he tells it, "my destructive energy EXPLODED!" After the first murder he was horrified and astonished that he could do such a thing, but as he continued to revel in the satanic scenes it became easier. Between sobs he said that he hoped his deeds would spur society to protect itself from the widespread influence of pornography, television violence and X-rated movies. He also said, "There are loose in this town, and other communities, people like me today whose dangerous impulses are being fueled day and night by violence in the media. In the prisons I have met a lot of men who were motivated to violence just like me and without exception every one was deeply involved in pornography." Pornography can reach out and snatch a kid from ANY HOME TODAY!

We deplore the heinous deeds of Bundy, but what about the lecherous porno combined that programmed this revolting specimen of humanity, and the elected officials who permitted, defended and supported this nefarious business? Every company which promotes, projects or protects such ungodliness should be boycotted and the guilty ones punished but don't wait up for the news. It will never happen in this life.

While Brinks hauls their blood money to the bank, they are reared back in their plush offices conjuring up more poison to satanize our youth. Punishment?? Forget it! Due to powerful friends, in and out of government, the subversive A.C.L.U. and the rich media lobbyists in Congress, we are unable to even curtail their production.

Some decent, respectable people are enhancing their prospects and increasing their profits by installing their product in their homes even furnishing their utilities! We don't care to advertise their putrid slop, by their saucer in the yard, or their evil box in the parlor! Enough sewage has already slithered through its slimy channels to defile the world. How could you call it anything but evil?

Someone said, "How can an inanimate object be evil?" Some things are so closely associated with evil that the very thoughts of them are repulsive. The name Jezebel for instance. There are millions of Marys but no Jezebels. morsel once in a while. They contend that they have the power to choose the good and eschew the evil. Perhaps they can. I am in no position to judge, but I DO KNOW that multitudes have confessed that they were wrong, and their mistake has brought sorrow, misery and even tragedy to their families. Why run that risk? Have you ever been wrong?

One such individual was a holiness preacher in California. His sorrowing widow related this testimony in a western camp a few years ago:

"Husband never watched the lewd, immoral, violent programs but became addicted to the humorous ones. He soon began to neglect his prayers, study and visitation. Sometime later he was felled with a coronary. He confessed to God, and myself, that the T.V. had caused him to be unfaithful to his divine calling and if God would forgive him he would leave it alone. God healed him and true to his vow, he relegated the tempter to a spare room. In a few weeks he was back in active ministry. Things went well for a while but eventually something was happening that his daughters said he just must see (Rose Bowl parade, or something), and he restored the one-eyed god to the living room for the occasion. Like an alcoholic, he couldn't stop at one sip. He was soon hooked again. Later on he had his second coronary and as the ambulance was speeding to the hospital he confided to me that God was going to take him for his unfaithfulness. He died a short time later."

What a shame. Negating a fruitful lifetime of service for a few hours of worldly entertainment. T.V. is alluring, hypnotic, deceitful and treacherous. The scripture tells us not only to shun all evil but all APPEARANCE of evil. One has quite a time shunning evil on T.V. Most of Christendom rejected T.V. at first but now 98% of the population harbors one. Most everyone will agree that T.V. is predominantly evil and degrading but they feel-pool for the little good that is to be found, is beyond me.

David Susskind, a T.V. promoter, has equated his business as follows, "There is some good in television, a tiny atoll in an ocean of filth." Quite a confession, isn't it? Seems to me it would be a lot safer and profitable to do your treasure hunting elsewhere.

Most people are unaware of the odds against one controlling the hypnotic T.V. They conveniently ignore the testimonies of hundreds who failed to do so, and the tragic results that followed that failure. Why take the chance? What are the odds against a Christian controlling his set? Some who made a study of it claim 60-70% against. How much Russian roulette would you dare to play with half the chambers loaded? Quite hazardous odds when your family's happiness and eternal destiny is at stake. When health, happiness and Heaven are threatened, most people use caution. Thousands and thousands of saved and unsaved have "axed" the T.V. and are now rejoicing in the fact.

Satan is controlling T.V. and we should realize that we are no match for him. In the Scriptures, the strongest, wisest, bravest and meekest all lost the battle after doing great exploits for God. Even the archangel Michael durst not contend with him over the body of Moses. Evil cannot be tamed or controlled, it has to be eradicated!

In reformation days the subject of the Adamic nature was quite a bone of contention between different factions, and to some extent Still exists today. Some believed in suppressing and controlling the unwelcome tenant. Others said that Christ had made provisions and paid the price for the carnal nature to be eradicated. All that was needed was your full compliance and permission for the Holy Spirit to perform the surgery. For a moment let's compare the operation to an appendectomy. We humans have a little pocket of flesh clinging to our intestine which is quite troublesome at times. It might be calm and docile for years and suddenly flare up and cause havoc in the entire system.

I suppose it is useless. Most people get along better without it than they do with it, so why bother with it? I feel the same way about T.V. It is degrading, troublesome, costly, dangerous and sometimes deadly, so why risk such a hazard in the home? The thing might seem to be an innocent entertainer, but all the while it is working insidiously to control and poison the minds of its audience. It's so subtle that you are an addict before you realize it.

Sometimes we suffer with a rebellious appendix for years. We massage it, dope it, ice it, and diet to pacify it, and then it shows its appreciation by lowering the boom on us when we least expect it. Some years ago in an isolated Canadian lodge a famous surgeon was stricken with an acute flare-up and was forced to use mirrors to remove the rebel. Without anesthetics it was quite painful, but he saved his life.

Perhaps it might be well to part company with your useless T.V. BEFORE it causes trouble or tragedy in your home. IF it pains you to think about it, or you have already performed the painful operation and the wound has never healed, the best thing to do would be to try the spiritual surgery we were talking about earlier. That would take care of it.

Doesn't it seem strange to you that thousands of unsaved parents and leaders are convinced of the evil influence of T.V. and have booted it out of their homes, while some pastors and members of holiness groups will fondle old evil eye in the hopes of finding a bit of good in the hodgepodge of filth? I always surmised that the indwelling of the Spirit would be accompanied by a measure of discernment between good and evil. Am I wrong in this? Am I just getting senile and can no longer correlate circumstances correctly? It's the Spirit's job to guide us AWAY from evil. ANYTHING, OF WHATEVER FORM, SUBSTANCE, BREED OR COLOR THAT HAS DECEIVED, DESTROYED AND DEMONIZED AS MANY SOULS AS TELEVISION HAS, SHOULD NOT BE WELCOMED IN ANY HOME PERIOD!! IT IS EVIL!

I imagine a pit bull dog would make a very efficient watch dog. One could keep him chained and post a warning about his savagery. I guess we could, but we have friends and neighbors. Accidents do, and have happened. One tragedy might torment our conscience for years. We'll be on the safe side and not keep a pit bull! Due to a rash of serious accidents Missouri is considering a law against keeping them. Wish we had one against T.V. "WHY, BROTHER! You wouldn't be selfish enough to infringe on my civil rights and take away my T.V., would you?" I sure would, if I could! I'd even try to save you if you were trying to commit suicide! civil rights or no!

The following is from "The Fallacy of Control," by D. P. Denton "How foolish to think that supposedly sensible leaders would encourage people to keep something that was dangerous to their spiritual lives. In the old days we were told to abstain from ALL appearance of evil. The control advocates tell us that we are not to be total abstainers but partial controllers. This is like telling a baby to play with the butcher knife but do not cut its throat. It's like giving a little boy a gun, but telling him not to shoot anyone."

Most mothers would be horrified to find a caged garter snake in Junior's room, then go and buy a T.V. for him with no strings attached. Consistency, thou art a jewel!!! Keeping a T.V. in the house as a threat to the whole family is about as consistent as having Shirley MacLaine or Angela Davis teaching a Sunday school class or Charlie Manson chaperoning a Girl Scout troop!

I do not intend to deliberately tempt myself and others by making evil available. I am an abstainer. I would not feel at ease, keeping in my home the stumbling block over which multitudes, young and old, have fallen. You who feel that you just MUST have a peep at the living room theater once in a while, for goodness sake, and the sake of your loved ones, get a lock and key for it so that you know AT ALL TIMES WHAT IS ON THE MENU!!! Keep in mind that television is the most efficient, compelling, hypnotic tutor and salesman that the world has ever known. 95% of the people are allowing it to dictate the norms of our society and indoctrinate our families from infancy. Be truthful, are you REALLY ENJOYING THE LICENTIOUS, REBELLIOUS, HEARTLESS, UNGODLY SOCIETY THAT IT HAS SPAWNED?

BY THEIR FRUITS YOU SHALL KNOW THEM

Just how bad is television, anyway? We'll word it that way for no honest person could say it was all good. Christ said, "An evil tree cannot bring forth good fruit." Let us consider for a moment the character and well deserved reputation of television. Down through history the theater, as a whole, has never been a friend to virtue and righteousness. The programming has seldom promoted the principles that have made our nation a model of modesty, chastity, and godliness, but is controlled by lecherous, covetous leaders who, in order to amass fabulous fortunes, were willing to destroy the nation itself to reach that goal. The results of this treason, the fruits of the industry, merit its evil reputation.

In our century we have plummeted from the most peaceful, righteous, law abiding nation on earth to the most criminal, atheistic, perverted society in history. Several things have contributed to our tragic downfall, but most of these detrimental factors were influenced, fostered, nurtured and promoted by a corrupt, ungodly media in the last fifty-odd years. In our nation under God, Satan and his cohorts are striving desperately to remove the name and all thoughts of our Creator from our midst. In one state it was judged to be unlawful for a student to bow his head on his desk for a moment or two of SILENT prayer. In a Missouri school the singing of Christmas carols was judged unlawful; while at another southwest Missouri school, after a long, bitter fight, the school was forced to allow rock and roll and dancing, which had been forbidden for decades. Back east the courts forced the removal of a copy of the Ten Commandments from a school hall. The U.S., a Christian nation?? We have now murdered (yes, murdered) millions of innocent babies since we legalized unlimited abortion. Many states have lately abolished the Sunday closing laws. Billions of dollars are now wagered on legalized gambling. Censorship of filthy pornography is almost a thing of the past. Sodomy is now a way of life for thousands and they cannot be discriminated against in the labor pool. At one place in New York the authorities withdrew support for the Salvation Army because they refused to hire homosexuals. Subversives have infiltrated our government and abolished many counterspy organizations that protect our nation; even our F.B.I. has been pared down to a skeleton force. Unbelievable decisions by our higher courts paint a dismal picture for our future. Remember, ALL these plagues have been poured out on society since the advent of television.

In the following paragraphs we learn the opinion of others concerning the character of our powerful media. Individuals from all walks of life have expressed their opinions of the sinister influence television has had on our nation. These individuals are not gimlet-eyed kooks or fanatics, or barefoot calamity howlers, but are sane, sensible citizens, some of them leaders in their respective spheres of society: professors, judges, teachers, preachers, doctors, lawyers, lawmen and even unfortunate victims of its contamination. Carefully and prayerfully ponder their admonitions and conclusions.

We will start with Rev. Oswald J. Smith, respected pastor and author:

"It seems to me that television is the greatest menace of modern times and how Christians are going to make use of it I do not know. Anyone who has seen it must be convinced of its danger. [Written in the infancy of T.V. The theater with all its filth that we, as Christians, wouldn't dream of patronizing is now brought into our living room. Television may well be the final step in the complete collapse in the moral and spiritual life of our nation. The atomic bomb is bad, the hydrogen bomb is frightening, but T.V. is going to be worse than either, and far more destructive. It will completely wreck the rising generation and before long it will turn the U.S. and Canada into a Sodom and Gomorrah infinitely worse than the wicked cities of the Bible. When that day comes, judgment will be on the races and it will be because of T.V. and its diabolical influence on young minds. Science will have succeeded in destroying civilization."

NOTE: This deadly accurate prophecy is right on schedule and should elevate Rev. Smith to the status of a true prophet.

J. Edgar Hoover "Juvenile crime which is overwhelming America today is due to the evil influence of corrupt T.V. It is transforming our nation into harlotry. Through Hollywood, the song styles, language, and red light deeds have been adopted by millions. Underworld music from jazz to rock, glamorized by T.V. and movies, has satanized our youth."

Drew Pearson "Juvenile delinquency committee documents fix the blame squarely on the networks which in pursuit of higher ratings have filled the tubes with sex and violence." William Haynes reported that a study of 100 jailed inmates in Chicago showed that movies, T.V. and lewd literature aided their downfall.

Arthur Schlessenger pointed out T.V.'s downward spiral of complete debasement. Arthur Timmons "Some children now grow up with a completely distorted sense of what is right and wrong."

Hugh Gillespie reported a little "televised" boy, when informed that his grandfather had passed away during the night, asked, "Who shot him?"

Ray Brubaker "God hates sin, whether committed by people or portrayed on T.V." S. H. Humbolt, Baptist preacher "T.V. is the most useless, time consuming, sin exciting instrument ever introduced into a home."

Dr. J. Dobson, U.S.C. professor and the last one to interview Ted Bundy "Television has the power to destroy us as a nation. I fear that repair!"

G. T. Bustin "Television is Satan's master scheme to bring the lust-breeding, mundane and demoralizing movies into the home."

Dr. William Deitz "The evidence shows that T.V. causes violent behavior and OBESITY Voice in the Wilderness Dr. William Strasburger says that American kids spend about 23 hours a week watching T.V. By age 70 they will have spent 7 years, approximately one tenth of their lifetime, in front of the tube.

POTPOURRI MEDIA AND THE LAW

How blind and inconsistent can we be as a nation? With rivers of filth, corruption and subversion gushing out from television, video and porno shops to debase our morals, demonize our youth and demoralize our law officers, even threatening our very existence as a free nation, the F.C.C. does little or nothing to slow it down. On the other hand, TWO discolored, poisonous grapes (out of TWO TRILLION) are discovering Chilean farm workers to be jobless, and strained relations with the South American nation. Big deal??? National emergency??? Oh, that the F.C.C. were as concerned about the danger of our diabolical media!

Through clever manipulation, selective photography, and biased reporting, in the coverage of protests, riots, and civil disobedience, our decadent media has vilified and slandered our law officers until they no longer enjoy the respect of the masses. Poor innocent mischievous youth vs. arrogant, brutal cops headline their false reports. In some documented cases the camera men incited the rioters to step up the violence and even furnished rioting material to make their film more thrilling. They conveniently ignore the dangerous missiles, the snarling, cursing, vulgar insults, the odorous garbage and other refuse dripping from the officer's clothing, but they always manage to film the innocent looking youth being dragged away to the paddy wagon by the harassed officers. ACLU-inspired court decisions have literally hamstrung the officers in most cases.

They are at a serious disadvantage in any confrontation. In some western cities, youth gangs brazenly challenge the law in open street battles. It's almost to the place now to where the officer must stand and calmly read the legal rights to the criminal while his bullets are whining past the officer's head before he can legally draw his gun. If the officer is lucky and brings his man to trial, the shrewd lawyers and corrupt judges will have the guilty one back on the streets in a few weeks to have another try at the officer! Such is the society spawned by our ungodly media, from our judicial system to the man on the street.

The most adept lawyers and lobbyists lurk in the camp of the A.C.L.U. and they are pushing and WINNING their immoral and subversive cases in Congress and court. Backed by the hordes of subversive and atheistic groups and unlimited financing, they have become a dominant force, almost too powerful to challenge.

What has happened to America? Need I say more? The daily headlines will keep you informed! What is in the future for America? Your history book and Psalm 9:1617 will answer that, if you can spare the time from your programs to look it up!!

SUMMARY

I might consider owning a television when

We can enjoy it without being contaminated by immorality, violence and perversion.

They quit glamorizing the vulgar rock stars with their dope and sex orgies and their satanic lyrics and music.

The so called religious programs are no longer dominated by the sensational, charismatic charlatans whose primary interests seem to be romancing, preying on the patron's bank accounts and promoting the false promise of utopian health, wealth and luxury living for everyone who embraces their substitute for holy living. We do not have to search the entire dial to find a station that does not bombard us with beer and liquor ads.

The network hierarchy is no longer dominated by the licentious, subversive, atheistic conspiracy. Pollsters allege that 89% of A.B.C., C.B.S, and N.B.C. favor homosexuality and the gay crowd. Only 10% attend church and those churches are modernistic.

The programs quit promoting humanism, communism and one world concepts. They invent a gadget that will prevent total addiction to their filthy product. They attach a "condenser" that will soften profanity to "pshaw" or "fiddlesticks." It gets a divorce from Hollywood, humanism and "homos."

It ceases fomenting civil disobedience, riots, violence and unlawful protests. They quit trying to give away our democracy to the United Nations, International Bankers, and New-Agers.

They quit pampering hardened criminals and prosecuting the heroic anticommunists.

They quit slanting the news to nurture every unAmerican activity in existence.

The corrupt media makes full restitution for the Pandora box of evils it has loosed on civilization. unlimited abortion, sodomy, and its offspring: AIDS, humanism, gambling and a dozen others.

They make a wholesale housecleaning and make it a channel of blessing instead of a sewer pipe of filth. When you get it all cleaned up and disinfected, put a halo over it and bring it around. I might consider it if you twisted my arm hard enough!!
